Defendant: Jarin ScottCase Number: 1:10CR01361-001JB*IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total term of 36 months

The Court incorporates its Memorandum Opinion and Order, filed May 4, 2011 (Doc. 79). The United States Probation Office ("USPO") disclosed a Presentence Investigation Report ("PSR") for Defendant Jarin Scott on February 10, 2011. In the PSR, the USPO calculated Scott's offense level to be 16 and his criminal history category to be I, establishing a guideline imprisonment range of 21 to 27 months. There being no objection to the factual findings and sentencing calculations in the PSR, the Court adopts them as its own. Pursuant to rule 11(c)(1)(C) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, the Court accepts the plea agreement, which stipulates to a 36-month sentence, as the Court is satisfied that the agreed offense level departs for justifiable reasons. In the plea agreement, the parties agreed to a 36-month sentence in exchange for Plaintiff United States of America's dismissal of the charges under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c)(1)(A) for using a firearm in relation to a crime of violence, which carries a ten year minimum sentence.

The Court notes Scott fired two shots from a Remington Hawk, model 382, 12 gauge shotgun at the apartment number 222 of the Chaco River Apartments in Shiprock, New Mexico, and within the exterior boundaries of the Navajo Nation Indian reservation. Jefferson Nez, Kristin Banally, Michael Walker, and three juveniles were inside the apartment at the time Scott fired the shots. The Court sentences Scott to 36 months in the Bureau of Prisons' custody. The Court has considered carefully the parties' arguments and the circumstances of this case. The Court has considered the guidelines, but, in arriving at its sentence, has taken into account not only the guidelines but other sentencing goals. Specifically, the Court has considered the guideline range for the applicable category of offense committed by the applicable category of defendant. The Court believes that the punishment that the guidelines set forth is not appropriate for Scott's offense. The crime was serious, and someone could have been seriously hurt. An upward variance is appropriate. In exchange for a sentence of 36 months, the plea agreement dismisses charges under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c)(1)(A), which would carry a ten year sentence. The Court finds that a 36-month sentence adequately reflects the seriousness of the offense, promotes respect for the law, provides just punishment, affords adequate deterrence, protects the public, and otherwise fully reflects each of the factors embodied in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a). While the Court's task, as a district court, is not to arrive at a reasonable sentence -- it is to come up with one that reflects the factors in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), see United States v. Conlan, 500 F.3d 1167, 1169 (10th Cir. 2007) ("[A] district court's job is not to impose a reasonable sentence. Rather, a district court's mandate is to impose a sentence sufficient, but not greater than necessary, to comply with the purposes of section 3553(a)(2).") (citation omitted) -- the Court believes this sentence is reasonable, and more reasonable than the one the guidelines recommended. Finally, the Court believes that the 36-month sentence adequately reflects Scott's criminal history and that this sentence is sufficient without being greater than necessary to comply with the purposes of punishment Congress set forth in the Sentencing Reform Act. Scott shall be on supervised release for a term of three years following his incarceration.

The court makes the following recommendations to the Bureau of Prisons:

Phoenix Federal Correctional Institution, Phoenix, Arizona, if eligible

- The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.
- The defendant shall surrender to the United States Marshal for this district:
  - at on
  - as notified by the United States Marshal.
- The defendant shall surrender for service of sentence at the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons:
  - before 2 p.m. on
  - as notified by the United States Marshal
  - as notified by the Probation or Pretrial Services Office.
